NAPLES COMMUNITY ORCHESTRA CANCELS SEASON FINALE CONCERT DUE TO CORONAVIRUS CONCERNS

(Naples, FL) – In response to growing concerns by the Florida Department of Health regarding large gatherings due to the spread of Coronavirus (COVID-19), and in the interest of protecting the health and safety of their audience and musicians, Naples Community Orchestra (NCO) has CANCELED their final concerts of the season. The performances set for April 17th and 18th, 2020 featuring violinist Stella Chen are now scheduled to launch their next season in January 2021.

NCO deeply regrets this inconvenience. As a courtesy to their audience, NCO offers one of the following options to those who have purchased tickets for the canceled concerts:

Donate your tickets. As a nonprofit arts organization, Naples Community Orchestra relies on the audience whom they serve. By donating the cost of your tickets, you are providing vital support to their orchestra. Please consider donating your tickets back to NCO. You will receive a donation receipt for tax purposes.

Exchange your tickets for next season. Season ticket holders and customers who purchased tickets to the April 17 or 18, 2020 concerts may exchange their tickets for a 2021 season performance.

IMPORTANT: To donate or exchange your tickets, you must email your request to tickets@naplescommunityorchestra.org.

NCO is already planning their 2021 season and looks forward to another outstanding lineup of performances and soloists under the baton of beloved Artistic Director Max Rabinovitsj. Programming announcements for the 2021 season will be posted on NaplesCommunityOrchestra.org.
